

Professional scientific sessions for art, architecture and urban planning Thursday evenings

Held in: Conference hall of Herampey Consulting Engineers

Date: 21.06.2018

Title: Presentation of Tehran University Architects Association (Considering the importance of graduated associations).

Speakers and panel members: Mr. A. Ekhlaspour and Mrs. D. Dorreh.

The speakers began their speech presenting the main goals of the association that they presented. Staying together, live together and unifying the working hand that are far from each other.

The association of Tehran University architects is a professional, scientific and cultural unity, trying to create relationships, transfer information and experiences, in order to increase the architectural knowledge of the members that are mostly graduated from the Tehran University.

The speakers that the nucleus of their association can be found in their periodic meetings, where the members the results of the activities and the future programs and intentions. During the meeting the members are informed about the reasons and the necessity of the formation of such association. During the meetings the participants are also informed about the legal process of the registration and the celebration of the annual meetings. During these meetings some architectural figures will be present too, in order to give the necessary directions to the managing board.

During these years the association has organized different competitions, excursions, seminars and conferences on architecture, workshops and events to commemorate signor professors and professionals.

Stressing on the fact that the association is a non political and non profit organization, the members are Iranian citizens and faithful of the principles of Islamic Republic of Iran, following the main goals like transfer of knowledge, information, experience in order to increase the professional capacities of the members. The association helps the members to better know and understand the professional contracts, the duties and the rights, organizes contacts and meetings with other similar associations, that benefits the exchange of knowledge and experience, between people that are working in the same field and market.

The speakers stressed on the fact that all the activities are based following the articles of the association's statute, so nobody can exercise personal preferences. They also explained who could be member of the association in base of Iranian current laws and duties. To be part of the association there are three type of membership, for graduated persons, for students and for honorary members, that must be presented and elected by the managing board majority.

They explained also the duties and the manners for the organization of the general assembly and which were the duties and limitations of the managing board and their election.